

Only household vacuum sealer utilizing standard vacuum bags

- Self-contained unit
- Used for light commercial packaging
- Uses any poly/nylon vacuum pouch
(no need for expensive channel / embossed bags)

SINBO is the only light vacuum sealer on the market today that utilizes standard poly/nylon vacuum pouches. The SINBO is ideal for sealing food, medical, and clean room products. Two models are available in the SINBO family; DZ-280/2SD and DZ-280/2SE (can vacuum seal liquids and powders).

- Impulse sealing system resulting in no warm-up time
- Can seal up to 11" wide poly/nylon vacuum pouches
- Controlled heat-sealer timer and automatic overheat warning indicator
- No outside compressor needed as unit is self-contained

- No need to purchase expensive channel bags because any standard vacuum able pouch will do
- Manufacturer's replacement kit includes –1 flat heating element, 1 PTFE adhesive, sample vacuum pouches, and an instruction manual
- Energy efficient, compact and portable
